

COOK EAT SLOVENIA - Culinary workshop with locals

We will take you on a culinary journey around Slovenia, share our local cooking philosophy, special ingredients, and family recipes. Join us on a workshop led by Cook Eat Slovenia team and learn how to prepare an authentic and traditional Slovenian dishes.

A hands-on culinary experience where you can get as involved in the cooking as you like, no previous cooking experience is necessary to enjoy the delicacies.

We will put together a tasting menu consisting of a selection of typical Slovenian cold starters and with that, you are ready to start cooking. Together we will prepare a lovely warm starter, a hearty main dish and to round your evening off in style we will prepare excellent Slovenian dessert. Each dish will be served fresh, immediately after preparation.

You will also get a chance to taste different sorts of Slovenian wine, homemade traditional juices, and as a digestif some typical Slovenian schnapps and liqueurs.

We adjust our menus seasonally and always cook with fresh ingredients from the local farms or market, which is just next door. A unique culinary experience for all food lovers.
